Family History Research Friday, 1-3pm

Staff Changes

The Port Pirie Library Service welcomes Kylie Wolter to its permanent staff. After seven years as a Casual employee, Kylie was successful in winning the recently advertised position. While the majority of Kylie's time will be spent at the Port Pirie Library, she will be working at the Crystal Brook Rural Office/Library on Thursdays, when Sue Denton, the Customer Service Officer at Crystal Brook, will be rostered for duty in the Port Pirie Library.

2016 FREE Reading Packs are available now!

In 2016, LBBC's new Preschooler Reading Pack will be made available free to parents with children aged 3 years of age.

The new reading pack resources have a focus on school readiness and food literacy and include Your Family's Favourite Cookbook and the mini picture book series.

Preschool Reading packs and Toddler Reading Packs are now available from the Port Pirie and Crystal Brook Libraries.

Reading packs support parents and carers to read, talk, play and sing with their child every day to help give them the best start in life. Regular positive engagement is important to assist with a child's brain development and growth. Best of all, it's fun and free!
