CAUGHT READING

KAREN SOBEY - Library Officer, Port Pirie

■What have you just finished reading?

Wicked Charms by Janet Evanovich.

It's a swashbuckling adventure full of raiders, monkeys, minions, and mayhem. Lizzy and Diesel are going to have to do everything they can to keep their heads above water and hope they are living a charmed life.

■Thumbs up or thumbs down?

I enjoyed it. It offers light hearted entertainment with a touch of the supernatural, humour and mystery.

■What are you reading now?

Comeback by Peter Corris

■What's it about?

It is the 37th book in the Cliff Hardy series. Cliff Hardy is a private investigator based in Sydney who is starting to feel his increasing years but refuses to slow down or give up the work he loves, even after a quadruple heart bypass. He undertakes a variety of assignments that see him travelling around the Sydney region in his ancient Ford Falcon.

■Would you recommend it?

I would certainly recommend the whole series to anyone who enjoys crime or mystery novels.

■What do you want to read next?

Memory Man by David Baldacci.

Amos Decker is an ex-football star
and a highly decorated ex-cop.

He was a promising footballer, but his career was cut short by an on-field accident as a twenty-two year-old NFL rookie. The injury resulted in a condition of possessing an extremely detailed autobiographical memory wherein he forgets nothing. He becomes a policeman but years later the grisly murders of his loved ones
leaves him directionless.

Author Review

Clive Cussler

Clive Cussler is an American adventure novelist and marine archeologist. He has explored the deserts of the American Southwest in search of lost gold mines, dived in isolated lakes in the Rocky Mountains looking for lost aircraft and hunted under the sea for shipwrecks of historic significance, discovering and identifying more than sixty. Using these experiences to enthrall the reader, he has written sixty-one novels, as part of five different series.

Dirk Pitt is the ultimate man of action: always ready for any challenge, always prepared to pit quick wits and brawn against an intractable problem. Ex-US Air force, he is cool, courageous and resourceful, which is why he works for the US National Underwater and Marine Agency (NUMA) - the undersea counterpart to NASA. In service of NUMA Pitt travels across the globe - and wherever he goes, action and adventure are sure to follow.

Juan Cabrillo (The Oregon Files) is Chairman of the "Corporation", a special US Government-sponsored group that operates out of a ship called the Oregon; a marvel of scientific research equipment bristling with state-of-the-art weaponry - but disguised as a heap of junk. Cabrillo and his crew of mercenaries with a conscience are able to cross the high seas in their 'rusting' tub unmolested, seeking out those beyond the arms of the law and dealing out justice to any who would plot chaos on a global scale.

Kurt Austin is Head of the US National Underwater and Marine Agency's (NUMA) Special Assignments Team - a job that ensures he is no stranger to danger above or below the waves. Austin's assignments take him across the globe and frequently bring him into conflict with those who seek to use any and all means to exploit the world's resources. But as a professional man of action, Austin is determined that it will never happen on his watch.

Isaac Bell is a this tall, lean, no-nonsense detective working for the "Van Dorn Detective Agency" who is driven by his sense of justice, travels early-twentieth-century America pursuing thieves and killers, and sometimes criminals much worse.

Sam and Remi Fargo, a husband and wife treasure-hunting team who travel to exotic locales around the globe; unraveling ancient mysteries, unearthing long-lost treasures, finding themselves in sticky situations at every turn.
